Jackson County, Texas is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer and the County does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age or handicapped status in employment or the provisions of services.

This Request for Qualifications (RFQ) does not constitute a commitment, implied or otherwise, that a contract will be awarded. Jackson County reserves the right to reject any or all submissions.

Any Contract authorized under RFQ 25-03 is contingent upon availability of funds. Jackson County will select a vendor to negotiate the Contract under this RFQ. The most highly qualified Vendor selected by Jackson County through this RFQ process is not guaranteed to be awarded a contract from the County but may be invited to enter into negotiations with the County for a contract. This RFQ formally replaces Jackson County RFQ 24-03 which sought qualifications for a justice center as a contract for design services was not awarded pursuant to RFQ 24-03 but is expected to be awarded from this solicitation.

General Description:

Jackson County invites qualified architectural firms to submit their qualifications for the design and construction administration of an integrated complex, which will include a new Emergency Operations Center, the Jackson County Detention Facility, and the Justice Center. The Emergency Operations Center will house dispatch operations and serve as the primary emergency response hub. The Detention Facility will include the sheriff's office, law enforcement personnel offices, and a 120-bed detention facility with potential for future expansion. The Justice Center, adjacent to the detention facility, will be a reflection of the historic Jackson County Courthouse while embracing technology for adaptability and accessibility; and accommodate courtrooms and court administration.

The County, due to state funding and appropriations has determined that a phased approach would provide maximum benefit to the County. Accordingly, the County envisions the design and construction of phase 1, the Emergency Operations Center, to be given priority. The completion of design and construction of the Justice Center will be phase 2 of the project. The selected firm will assist the County in the design, procurement, and construction of the project.

Pursuant to the chapter 2254 of the Texas Government Code, the County is seeking the most highly qualified design professional firm to provide comprehensive design, review, analysis, planning, surveys, and other ancillary services necessary to implement projects under terms and conditions established by this RFQ and Jackson County. Respondents must be compliant with existing federal, state, and local laws, codes regulation, and requirements. Any firms considered for designing the proposed Justice Center must also be compliant with and knowledgeable on requirements of the Texas Commission on Jail Standards.

Scope of Services:

The selected firm will be expected to provide a range of architectural services, and corresponding engineering services through consultants or subconsultants, including, but not limited to the following. No priority is implied by the order of the following services requested by the County:

- Conceptual design and planning
- Structural analysis and engineering
- Environmental assessments and compliance
- Development of construction plans and specifications
- Development of project applications and supporting documentation
- Construction management and oversight
- Project management
- Field surveying data collection
- Watershed planning and modeling
- Hazard mitigation
- Benefit-cost analysis and strategies

- Drainage master planning
- Regulatory issues and permitting management and oversight
- Sustainability and energy efficiency consulting
- Other related architectural and engineering services as required by specific projects

The capability of a vendor to provide expertise in more than one (or all) of the services identified above will be considered favorably in the County's ranking and selection process. Vendors may subcontract for such services; however, existing relationships are preferred. All subcontracting relationships for services shall be clearly documented and proposed subconsultants identified in the SOQ.

Project Schedule(s):

The County has been appropriated funds from the State of Texas specifically for the Emergency Operations Center. Project costs must be segregated between phases. Interested firms shall provide a proposed phasing model with strategies that promote efficiencies of cost and schedule to ensure schedule optimization for phase 1 without sacrificing the same for phase 2.

Licensure:

Respondents must have legally required licensure so that all services required from them may be delivered in accordance with applicable law. Although proof of licensure is not required as a part of the Statement of Qualifications, Respondents are encouraged to submit photocopies of relevant current licenses or license numbers to verify standing.

Inquiries:

Jackson County will try to answer written inquiries concerning this RFQ but shall not be obligated to do so. If the Responder believes the scope of services to contain an error or is unclear, then the Responder may make a written inquiry by email as provided below. Answers will be delivered by email, so written inquiries should contain the name and email address of the person to whom the response should be made. The foregoing shall not limit Jackson County's right to issue addenda to the scope of services prior to opening or to delay the date and time of opening to ensure that all firms are aware of and have had sufficient time to consider the addenda. The final date for questions and inquiries is Thursday, September 11, 2025 by 12:00 PM (central).

All questions should be addressed to the following contact person BY EMAIL:

Michelle Darilek, Jackson County Auditor
Email Address: m.darilek@co.jackson.tx.us

Waiver of Formalities:

Jackson County reserves the right to reschedule, extend, or cancel this RFQ at any time. The County reserves the right to reject any or all responses, and to waive formalities or irregularities in connection with this RFQ and may consider submissions not made in compliance with this request for qualifications if it elects to do so, to the extent permitted by law, although the County will have no obligation for such consideration.

Exceptions:

Respondents should read and understand all terms and conditions contained in this RFQ. Exceptions MUST be made at the time that the Qualifications are submitted, NOT during the Contract Award process.

Project Information:

The Architect firms submitting SOQs for the design of the Justice Center must have experience in the design of such facilities in Texas, and be familiar with applicable laws, standards and regulations, including the requirements of the Texas Jail Standards Commission. The Architect must comply with the existing federal, state, and local laws, codes, regulations, and requirements.

Minimum Qualifications:

Vendors must meet the minimum qualifications listed below. Furthermore, RFQ responses that appear unrealistic in terms of technical capability, commitment, that show a lack of technical competence, or that indicate a failure to comprehend the risk and complexity of a potential contract may be rejected.

Experience	Vendor(s) must have been in business for a minimum of three (3) years or the principals shall have had ownership/management experience in a previous company that provided engineering, architecture, comprehensive design, review, planning, analysis, surveys, and other services.
Expertise	Vendor(s) must have demonstrated expertise in providing architecture and engineering services in the categories requested in the Scope of Services.
Licensing	Vendor(s) must be licensed in the State of Texas to practice architecture.
References	Provide references from at least 3 relevant projects within the last 5 years.
Capacity	Ability to commence work upon award and execution of the contract, and ability manage construction administration for both projects concurrently, as necessary.

Evaluation Methodology:

Criteria for Evaluation: Jackson County will determine, in its sole discretion, the Respondent that the County determines to be best qualified to perform the required services, based on the following criteria:

Basic Qualifications and Capabilities (35 points)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provide a description of the firm's resources and ability to deliver services.• Provide resumes of all key personnel to be used, including project experience, specific areas of expertise, relevant educational backgrounds and certifications.• Include an organizational chart.• Provide information concerning organizations and personnel to be associated with the firm in order to perform required services.
Performance History/References (35 Points)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provide at least 3 references• Demonstrated recent successful experience in design and contract administration.• Good and cost-efficient design of the above and similar projects.• Ability to design within established budget.• Assistance to clients in dealing with finish-out, warranty matters and construction problems.

Ability to Timely Perform (20 Points)	Provide estimated timeline for design services. Include expected duration and deliverable targets for each phase of design. For construction phase, include expected duration specifically in relation to contract administration services. Detail skills, strategy, and process to achieving timely completion of services and the overall project. Consideration may be given to location and availability of local resources provided by the architectural firm as that may, or may not, affect project coordination and timely efficient delivery of services.
Construction Administration Experience (10 points)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scale and complexity of past projects managed by the firm. • Experience with construction administration for projects similar to those expected under the contract. • Adherence to budget, meeting deadlines, and client satisfaction. • Qualifications and experience of the firm's construction management team. This includes project managers, engineers, site supervisors, and other key personnel. • Use of innovative construction management techniques and technologies. This could include Building Information Modeling (BIM), project management software, and other tools that enhance efficiency and project oversight. • Approach to sustainable construction practices and environmental stewardship. • Firm's financial stability and ability to manage the financial aspects of construction projects effectively.

Interview Option:

Jackson County, in its sole discretion, may require an in-person interview by 5 or fewer of the Respondents as part of the selection process. If the County notifies Respondent that it has been selected to participate in an interview, the County will provide Respondent with instructions on further information to be provided to the County prior to the interview and other requirements for the interview. Any information obtained during the interview process will be considered in the evaluation of the above-referenced criteria, and the County may amend its scoring and ranking accordingly.

Acceptance of Evaluation Methodology:

By submitting its SOQ in response to this RFQ, each Respondent accepts the evaluation process and acknowledges and accepts that determination of the “most highly qualified” firm will require subjective judgments by the County.

Selection Process:

Requests for Qualifications Responses will be evaluated by a committee comprised of County staff and/or consultants. In conformance with state law, RFQ Responses shall be evaluated in accordance with Chapter 2254 of the Texas Government Code. The County will rank the SOQs and select the most highly qualified provider on the basis on demonstrated competence and qualifications. Ranking merely determines which firm the County selects to enter into contract negotiations and does not determine the award of a project. If a satisfactory contract cannot be negotiated with the most highly qualified provider at a fair and reasonable price, the County will end negotiations with that provider, and select the next most highly qualified provider and attempt to negotiate a contract with that provider. This process will continue until a contract is entered into or the County elects to reject all SOQs. The selected firm will be expected to enter into the contract for design services attached to this RFQ.

Jackson County Commissioners Court will review the recommendations made by the RFP review committee and make the final selection decisions.

Jackson County will not be liable for any costs incurred by Vendors in preparing SOQs, proposals, or associated travel costs.

Award:

The County intends to award a contract for the services requested under this solicitation. The award is contingent upon the successful negotiation of final contract terms and upon the County Committee's recommendation to the Jackson County Commissioners Court and Court approval of said recommendation.

Conflict of Interest Statement:

The selected respondent, shall, as a condition of acceptance of their qualified response, register with the Texas Ethics Commission (TEC) and submit the State mandated Form 1295 – located at the following website: https://www.ethics.state.tx.us/whatsnew/elf_info_form1295.htm; receipt of acknowledgement will be completed by Jackson County, through the TEC website, as part of the proposal review process, within 30 days of the submission date.

Compensation:

Selected vendor(s) will be compensated based on a negotiated fee.

Procedures for submitting Requests for Qualification Response:

Jackson County requires that firms responding to this request do so in the manner prescribed below. This information should substantiate the capacity and ability of the firm and its staff to perform the services requested herein. It is important to list projects completed of a similar nature that demonstrates this capacity. Emphasis should be concentrated on conformance to the RFQ instructions, responsiveness to the RFQ requirements, and completeness and clarity of content.

Place of Performance:

Applicable Law and Venue: This proposal and any contract is performable in Jackson County, Texas and shall be governed by the law of the State of Texas (excluding conflict of laws rules if the application of such rules would require the application of the laws of a different state or nation). Venue for any action hereunder, at law or in equity, shall be in a state court of competent jurisdiction located in Jackson County, Texas.

Public Records Act/Information Disclosure to Third Parties:

Jackson County is a political subdivision of the State of Texas and subject to the Texas Public Information Act. Any information submitted to the County is presumed to be public information and available to the public. Any information or materials submitted to Jackson County that the Respondent considers confidential must be clearly marked "CONFIDENTIAL". If a request is made to review or obtain copies of the information marked Confidential under the Texas Public Information Act, Jackson County will endeavor to advise the Respondent of the request. If requested by the Respondent, the County will ask for an Open Records Decision or Ruling from the Texas Attorney General's Office, but the Respondent, at Respondent's sole cost and expense, will be responsible for asserting any appropriate exceptions to disclosure and information to support the Respondent's position. Jackson County will abide by the decision of the Texas Attorney General.

Proposals will be opened on the date specified on the cover page and kept secret during the process of negotiations. Only the names of the respondents will be made public at time of opening. All Proposals that have been submitted shall be open for public inspection only after final contract award, subject to the requirements of the Texas Public Information Act.

The law provides for certain exclusions to disclosure. If the Respondent believes that some information contained in their SOQs is exempt from disclosure, the Respondent is instructed to label such information as CONFIDENTIAL, specify the pertinent section of the public record law that justifies nondisclosure, and request in writing the County keep such information confidential and free from disclosure. The County reserves the right to make any final determination of the applicability of the public records law. In addition, all Proposals received by the SOQ submission date will become the property of the County and will not be returned.

The County reserves the right to retain all SOQs regardless of which response is selected. All SOQs and accompanying documents become the property of the County.

The requirements of Subchapter J, Chapter 552, Texas Government Code, may apply to this solicitation and any resulting Agreement, and Respondent agrees that the Agreement can be terminated if Respondent knowingly or intentionally fails to comply with a requirement of that subchapter.

Independent Contractor:

The Respondent is an independent contractor, and no employee or agent of the Respondent shall be deemed for any reason to be an employee or agent of the County

COUNTY TAXES: If the Respondent subsequently becomes delinquent in the payment of County taxes, that may be grounds for cancellation of the contract. Despite anything to the contrary, if the contractor is delinquent in payment of County property taxes at the time of invoicing, Respondent assigns any payments to be made for performance under this contract to the County Tax Assessor-Collector for the payment of delinquent taxes.

Tax Exempt:

Jackson County is exempt from all federal excise, state and local taxes under Section 151.309 of the Texas Tax Code. Texas Limited Sales Tax Exemption Certificates will be furnished upon request to the Respondent. Respondent is to issue its Texas Resale Certificate to vendors and subcontractors for such items qualifying for this exemption, and further, Respondent should state these items at cost.

Non-Collusion Affidavit:

Each respondent to this RFQ shall, as a condition of acceptance of their qualified response, submit the attached NON-COLLUSION AFFIDAVIT, signed and notarized as part of their submission. Failure to submit the signed and notarized NON-COLLUSION AFFIDAVIT will invalidate their submission and cause.

Compliance with Federal and State Laws:

Certification of Eligibility

By submitting a Proposal in response to this solicitation, the Respondent certifies that at the time of submission, they are not on the Federal Government's list of suspended, ineligible, or debarred entities. In the event of placement on the list between the time of Proposal submission and time of award, the Respondent will notify Jackson County and the Entities. Failure to do so may result in terminating this contract for default.
